

Professor of Sociology
Faculty of Social Sciences, University of Tartu, Estonia

Applications are invited for a full-time position of professor at the Institute of Sociology and Social Policy, starting in September 2009.

Applicants should demonstrate competence in supervision of sociological studies and research. The Faculty is looking for a person

- with significant post-doctoral experience in academia in the field of social sciences,
- with a substantial record of peer-reviewed publications of international standing in sociology,
- with commitment to graduate teaching and supervision of doctoral students in sociology,
- with commitment to initiate and secure funding for basic research projects in social sciences and academic leadership abilities for research projects,
- with willingness to cooperate in research fields related to sociology.

For further information please see <http://www.ut.ee/93573#35> .

Contact: Prof Eiki Berg (Dean of Faculty of Social Sciences) eiki.berg@ut.ee

Applications close Friday, 31 October 2008.

The candidate should submit the required documents to the University of Tartu at postal address: 4, Jakobi St, Tartu 51004, contact: akad\_sekr@ut.ee

University of Tartu (http://www.ut.ee/index.aw/set\_lang\_id=2) is a longstanding university founded in 1632. Number of students: about 17,000. For information about the Institute of Sociology and Social Policy please see <http://www.so.ut.ee/sociology>