

Mediterranean Programme

12th Mediterranean Research Meeting

Florence 6 - 9 April 2011

CALL for PAPERS

Deadline 15 July 2010

Goals

Reaching its Twelfth Session, the Mediterranean Research Meeting (MRM) aims:

- to foster theoretical and empirical research and dialogue among scholars from countries across the Mediterranean and with Mediterranean issue concerns;
- to reach as wide as possible coverage of all Mediterranean areas, with topics relating to the Middle East, North Africa, Southern Europe and the Balkans, their mutual relationships and their relations with Europe;
- to focus on legal, historical, economic and socio-political issues;
- to enable junior scholars to meet more senior scholars in an interactive environment, and to promote further research collaboration;
- to encourage publication and dissemination of this research in edited volumes, thematic issues of learned journals, and Mediterranean Programme Working Papers.

Structure

The MRM 2011 consists of 18 closed workshops.

Each workshop is directed by 2 workshop directors and on average includes 12 participants.

The participants of each workshop meet in four or five sessions for a total of approximately fifteen hours over two and a half days. They discuss papers, general topics, ways to publish the papers, and how to continue collaborative efforts.

Plenary and social events are organised during the MRM. The preliminary programme will be posted on the MRM web page in the Fall of 2010.

How to apply

Candidates apply online by submitting:

- The filled out online application form (<http://www.eui.eu/RSCAS/Med/mrm2011/>), including the paper proposal of 500 – 1000 words, in English.
- A Curriculum vitae of max 5 pages.

It is possible to apply for more than one workshop. In that case an applicant should submit the on-line application form for each workshop separately.

However, if an applicant is selected for more than one workshop, s/he should choose only one, as all the workshops are held simultaneously.

Co-authored papers can be proposed, but the Mediterranean Programme is only able to financially support one of the authors.

The Mediterranean Programme can agree that additional co-authors participate in the MRM but they have to pay their own travel and accommodation.

Selection

Workshop directors select the paper proposals, and the results of the selection process will be communicated to all applicants by 15 September 2010.

The full final paper should be submitted by 15 February 2011.

By submitting a paper for the MRM, a participant is agreeing to [MRM Participation and Copyright Agreement \[annex\]](#).

All selected candidates need to confirm their participation by e-mail to academic.medmeet@eui.eu within 10 days of the receipt of an invitation to participate.

Participants should guarantee their participation in all sessions of their workshop.

Working languages

A good working knowledge of English is required. There will be no translation or interpretation services available.

Papers should be written and presented in either English or French.

All abstracts accompanying the final version of the paper should be written exclusively in English.

Accommodation and travel costs

Participants receive a travel allowance based on their country of residence (independent of their nationality). This is a flat amount no matter what the actual travel costs are.

If you are receiving money from another institution to cover your travel costs you will not be granted the travel allowance from the MRM.

Participants pay for their own accommodation costs. However, they will benefit from a special discount rate that hotels offer to the MRM.

[Annex 1] MRM Participation and Copyright Agreement

Copyright

By submitting the paper, participants automatically declare that:

- the paper has not been published;
- the paper has not been accepted for publication and will not be submitted for publication anywhere before the MRM takes place;
- the author is the copyright holder and is informed of, and has fulfilled, any requirements regarding the rights of third parties;
- the Robert Schuman Centre for Advanced Studies (RSCAS) has been granted permission to publish and distribute the paper (in the form submitted for the MRM) by any means and in any media (in particular, hardcopy e-publication, and CD-rom/DVD) for an indefinite period. It is understood that the same or any other version of the paper can be submitted for publication elsewhere without restrictions after the MRM, the only restriction being that potential future publishers accept that the paper (in the form submitted for the MRM) will remain available and may be distributed by the RSCAS. In case of a co-organised workshop, the co-organising partner institution is granted the same rights as the RSCAS.

Paper protection and distribution

- All papers will be available on a secure online database;
- All papers will state the name of the copyright holder(s), and will also state that no quotation or citation is allowed, unless previous written authorisation is obtained from the author(s);
- Papers will be made available to all participants in electronic form only, on the web (password protected).

Participants should bring all the papers for their workshop to the MRM. Photocopies will not be supplied and participants wishing to make any photocopies will be charged a fee.

Reference in other publication(s)

The following citation format should be used for papers from the MRM published either in its original or in a revised form after the MRM (for all workshops, except for the co-organised ones):
